

Connecting with Your Customers

Monday, October 23, 2017

4:00 – 4:45 PM

General Session Junior Ballroom

In the highly competitive environment of today you need to retain and regain your best customers. Nationally recognized trainer D.J. Harrington explains the tips and techniques to keep your existing customers and add new ones. What works and what should you avoid? Your future depends on building strong customer relationships, not just more transactions. You will get the answers during this session and be entertained by this outstanding speaker at the same time.
